Those looking for a countryside hideaway can enjoy the five-star hotel Château de Valmer, which offers chic residences, cabins nestled amongst the ancient oaks, the Spa by l'Occitane, heated indoor and outdoor pools, a sauna, a steam room, a fitness suite and a gastronomic restaurant with three 3 "toques" and 15/20 in the Gault & Millau guide. This establishment serves up Provençal cuisine using local, organic produce, accompanied by the Château's own organic Rosé wine. And beach lovers will adore the four-star hotel La Pinède Plage. Here, guests can relax in the water and enjoy renovated rooms facing the sea, a private beach, a heated pool, tennis courts, water sports and a beach-side Mediterranean restaurant offering culinary delights on the terrace afternoon and evening with views of the Hyères Islands...
